FORD'S JULY SALES UP 5%; DEMAND FOR HIGH-QUALITY, FUEL-EFFICIENT PRODUCTS CONTINUES DRIVING GROWTH

By Newby Ford
nford@newspaper.com

- Ford, Lincoln and Mercury July sales totaled 166,092, up 5 percent versus strong year-ago sales; year-to-date sales up 24 percent
- Ford Fiesta eclipses 3,000 sales in its second month in America
- New 2011 Ford F-Series Super Duty and Ford Mustang continue impressive starts; Super Duty sales up 63 percent in July versus year ago; Ford Mustang retail sales increased 43 percent year over year

- Last year's new products also post sales gains; Ford Fusion nearly matches last July's sales record, Ford Taurus sales up 187 percent, and Ford Transit Connect posts best sales month ever
- Ford's retail market share appears to have increased for the 21st time in 22 months as buyers turn to Ford's lineup of high-quality, fuel efficient vehicles.
